

Emergency Preparedness and Response

Organizational resilience begins with readiness

Calian delivers end-to-end emergency management and business continuity solutions that help organizations anticipate emerging risks, respond decisively and recover from incidents and disruptions of all types. From hazard risk assessments and understanding threats to after-action reviews, we improve your capacity to respond to a crisis.

A Trusted Partner in Preparedness

For over 20 years, Calian has been a trusted partner to governments, Indigenous communities, critical infrastructure operators and private sector organizations across Canada. We work closely with every client to turn planning into action and insight into readiness—helping teams build resilience, adapt to change and stay prepared as risks evolve.

Backed by decades of real-world field experience, industry-recognized standards, deep technical expertise and advanced digital capabilities, we deliver practical, results-oriented support that reflects your organization's unique risk profile.

Planning and Risk Management

We work collaboratively with your team to identify, assess and manage risk through robust emergency management programs that are scalable, adaptable and aligned with your long-term operational goals.

Our planning supports preparedness for a wide range of threats, including floods, wildfires, severe weather, industrial incidents, infrastructure failure and security incidents. Our services include:

- Hazard, risk and vulnerability assessments
- Emergency management plans aligned with national and international standards
- Governance, communication and resource coordination frameworks
- Recovery strategies and business continuity planning

Training and Exercises

Preparedness is built through practice. Calian designs and delivers customized training and exercise programs that strengthen confidence, collaboration and decision-making, preparing teams at all levels to respond to a wide range of scenarios. Programs include:

- Tabletop, functional and full-scale exercises
- Multi-agency and cross-jurisdictional collaboration
- Certified ICS/IMS Emergency Operations Centre (EOC) training and response support
- Interactive, scenario-based simulations delivered through our proprietary software, ResponseReady®

Program Support and Evaluation

Preparedness doesn't end with a plan. We provide ongoing support to help organizations sustain, evaluate and improve their emergency management programs as risks, regulations and operating environments change. We provide:

- Program audits and assessments
- Policy and procedure development
- Post-incident reviews and lessons learned (e.g. after-action review)

Safeguard your people, operations and critical infrastructure when it matters most.
