

Join a winning healthcare team at Calian

If you're passionate about providing high-quality patient care in a flexible environment that values employee well-being, consider joining our team

Why choose Calian?

Consistent job opportunities

We hire for more than 85 categories of healthcare professionals nationally, including physicians, nurses and nurse practitioners, clinical psychologists, paramedics and clinical researchers.

Proven track record

We are a globally recognized provider of high-quality healthcare solutions, delivering multidisciplinary patient care for more than 20 years.

A solid network

We employ more than 2,800 healthcare professionals across Canada.

Optimal work environments

We offer full-time, part-time and casual opportunities to work within experienced and collaborative multidisciplinary teams. No on-call, evenings or weekend responsibilities for most positions.

Unique patient populations

Our skilled team of healthcare professionals supports a variety of unique patient populations, including military members and veterans, Indigenous communities, first responders, correctional services, and remote and isolated communities.

Just some of our career opportunities

Clinical psychologists

Get referrals for psychological assessments in your own practice or join a shared-care clinic providing care to military personnel.

Physicians

Whether you're experienced or new to practice, we have full-time, part-time and summer contract positions for family physicians in various locations across Canada.

Clinical researchers

We are always looking for qualified candidates for a variety of projects and therapeutic areas—with lots of opportunities for career advancement.

Nurses and nurse practitioners

Enjoy flexible schedules with guaranteed minimum hours and competitive pay—casual, part-time and full-time.

Paramedics

Work in clinic-based paramedic roles with an extended scope of practice and generous allotted administrative time.
